

Transferring Books from the Libby App to a Kindle Fire

Notes before starting:

1. You must begin the process on a smartphone or tablet as there is no Libby app for Kindle
2. Audiobooks cannot be sent to Kindle devices.

Meet Libby

What is Libby?

Libby is Overdrive's new and improved app for borrowing and downloading eBooks and downloadable audiobooks.

Why should I use Libby?

Overdrive has listened to the comments and suggestions of their users and built Libby from the ground up! This means Libby is more user-friendly and has some really great features that you didn't have before!

You'll need these 3 things to check out title from Libby:

1. Wireless internet connection
2. Your library card number
3. Your library PIN number

There are two ways to send books to your Kindle from the Libby app:

1. Send each book manually to your Kindle every time you check one out.
 - a. Choose this method if Kindle is not your preferred way to read eBooks, but you'd like to try it out or you only read on your Kindle occasionally.
2. Change your settings in Libby to make Kindle your preferred way to read.
 - a. Choose this method if you almost always read eBooks on your Kindle.

Directions for Sending Books to your Kindle Manually:

FAQs for the Libby App

I share a device with family members; can we each use our own card?

Yes! Libby lets you add multiple library cards and easily switch between them! Just tap black and white icon of a head the top right corner. Tap "Add A Card" and repeat steps 3 and 4 above.

Can I return a title early?

Yes, if the book has not been sent to a kindle device yet, simply tap the cover of the book in your shelf and then tap "Manage Loan." Select "Return Title to Library." If you have sent the book to a Kindle, you'll have to return the book from the Amazon website. Follow these steps:

1. Once in your Amazon account go to "Manage Your Content and Devices" page.
2. Find the title in the "Your Content" list, then tap the 3 dots.
3. Tap "Return this book" in the pop-up window.
4. Select "Yes" to confirm and return.

Why and how do I place a title on hold?

Just like print books, eBooks can only be checked out to one person at a time. To be put on the waitlist for a title, tap "Place a hold" where you would normally see the "Borrow" option. The first time you place a hold, you will be prompted to add your email. This is how they will notify you when the title becomes available.

What's the best way to search for the books I want?

Click on the "Library" tab at the bottom of the screen.

- Search bar: Tap the magnifying glass at the top of the screen. Type in the title or author you're looking for.

- Narrowing the results: At the top of every results lists are options to narrow the title down to a more specific format or genre.
- Setting preferences: The + sign at the top of the results lists let you set your preferences. These will be saved and applied to all your future searches. For example, if you like to view only titles that are available right now, you can set your preferences to show you only those titles.
- Refining the results without saving it as a preference: Use the “Refine” option on the right to narrow your results for only your current search

How can I keep track of what I’ve read and want to read?

Libby lets you keep track of what you’ve loved, disliked, want to read and more using tags. Tap on a book cover (whether you’ve read it, have it checked out, or none of the above) tap “Tag” and use the icons available or tap the + sign to create your own unique tags to mean whatever you want! Everything you have checkout out will appear under “Activity.”
